SUMMARY OF SECTION 45 OF INSURANCE ACT, 1938

No policy of life insurance shall, after the expiry of two years from the date on which it was effected, be called in question by an insurer on the ground that a statement made in the proposal for insurance or in any report of a medical officer, or referee, or friend of the insured, or in any other document leading to the issue of the policy, was inaccurate or false, unless the insurer shows that such statement was on a material matter or suppressed facts which it was material to disclose and that it was fraudulently made by the policyholder and that the policyholder knew at the time of making it that statement was false or that it suppressed facts which it was material to disclose.

Note: “Material” shall mean and include all important, essential and relevant information in the context of underwriting the risk to be covered by the Corporation.

INSURANCE ACT 1938 UNDER SECTION 41

1) No person shall allow or offer to allow, either directly or indirectly, as an inducement to any person to take out or renew or continue an insurance in respect of any kind of risk relating to lives or property in India any rebate of the whole or part of the commission payable or any rebate of the Premium shown on the policy nor shall any person taking out renewing or continuing a policy accept any rebate, except such rebate as may be allowed in accordance with the published prospectus or tables of the insurer. Provided that acceptance by an insurance agent of commission with a policy of life insurance taken out by himself on his own life shall not be deemed to acceptance of a rebate of premium within the meaning of sub-section if at any time of such acceptance the insurance agent satisfies the prescribed conditions establishing that he is a bonafide insurance agent employed by the insurer.

2) Any person making default in complying with the provision of this section shall be punishable with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees.
